

Marston Sicca Parish Council

Data Protection Policy

1. Introduction

In order to conduct relevant business, services and duties as a public authority, Marston Sicca Parish Council processes a range of data relating to its own operations and some which it handles on behalf of partners.

In broad terms, this data can be classified as:

- Data shared in the public arena about the services it offers, its mode of operations and other information it is required to make available to the public.
- Confidential information and data not yet in the public arena such as ideas or policies in the process of being decided.
- Information about other organisations that is confidential because of commercial sensitivity.
- Personal data concerning its current, past and potential employees, councillors and volunteers.
- Personal data concerning individuals who contact the Parish Council for information, to access its services or facilities or to make a complaint.

Marston Sicca Parish Council will adopt procedures and manage responsibly, all data which it handles and will respect the confidentiality of both its own data and that belonging to partner organisations it works with and members of the public. In some cases, it will have contractual obligations towards confidential data, but in addition will have specific legal responsibilities for personal and sensitive information under data protection legislation.

Marston Sicca Parish Council will periodically review and revise this policy in the light of experience, comments from data subjects and guidance from the Information Commissioners Office.

The Council will be as transparent as possible about its operations and will work closely with public, community and voluntary organisations. Therefore, in the case of all information which is not personal or confidential, it will be prepared to make it available to partners and members of the parish communities. Details of information which is routinely available is contained in the Council's Publication Scheme which is based on the statutory model publication scheme for local councils and is available on the Marston Sicca Parish Council website.

Protecting Confidential or Sensitive Information

Marston Sicca Parish Council recognises it must at times, keep and process sensitive and personal information about employees and the public; it has therefore adopted this policy not only to meet its legal obligations but to ensure high standards.

2. This policy is based on the eight principles set out in the 1998 Act

Data shall:

- i. Be processed fairly and lawfully;
- ii. Be obtained for a specified and lawful purpose and shall not be processed in any manner incompatible with the purpose;
- iii. Be adequate, relevant and not excessive for the purpose;
- iv. Be accurate and up-to-date;
- v. Not be kept for longer than necessary for the purpose;
- vi. Be processed in accordance with the Data Subject's rights;
- vii. Be kept safe from unauthorised processing and accidental loss, damage or destruction;
- viii. Not be transferred to a country outside the European Economic area, unless that country has the equivalent levels of protection for personal data, except in specified circumstances.

3. Definitions:

The Act – means the Data Protection Act 1998 which controls the use of personal information by organisations, businesses and government. Everyone responsible for using data has to follow the data protection principles (as above) and make sure the information is used fairly and lawfully.

General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) – from 25th May 2018, the GDPR replaces the Data Protection Act 1998. Its aim is to give people more control over how organisations use their data and to ensure data protection law is almost identical across the EU.

Data subject - means the person whose personal data is being processed. This may be an employee, prospective employee, councillor, resident or customer. Other data subjects and third parties may include contractors, suppliers, contacts, referees, friends or family members.

Personal data - means any information relating to a natural person or data subject that can be used directly or indirectly to identify the person. It can be anything from a name, a photo, and an address, date of birth, an email address, bank details, and posts on social networking sites or a computer IP address.

Sensitive personal data - includes information about racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, and religious or other beliefs, trade union membership, physical or mental health or condition, sexual orientation, genetic and biometric data or criminal proceedings or convictions. Data controller - is a 'person' who determines the purposes for which and the manner in which any personal data is to be processed. A 'person' as recognised in law may be an individual, organisation or body of persons.

Data processor - in relation to personal data, means any person (other than an employee of the data controller) who processes the data on behalf of the data controller.

Processing – refers to any action involving personal information, including obtaining, viewing, copying amending, adding, deleting, extracting, storing, disclosing or destroying information.

4. Reasons for processing personal data

Marston Sicca Parish Council processes personal data in order to:

- fulfil its duties as an employer by complying with the terms of contracts of employment, safeguarding the employee and maintaining information required by law.
